

* Model assumes that the log probability of seeing one category can be modelled using a linear predictor. To guarantee that the probability of all outcomes sums to one, a normalizing constant is used (i.e. the denominator in the expression for p_n . In Stan, the softmax function is used to accomplish this.

Observation n